

Level One Foundations Course
Module 5 Quiz
CORE VALUES

1. CAP's core values
 - a. reflect the baseline of expected conduct.
 - b. start when members take the oath.
 - c. highlight the difference between CAP and other volunteer organizations.
 - d. all of the above.

2. Integrity means
 - a. just being honest.
 - b. actions are governed by rules or regulations.
 - c. doing what is right even when no one is watching.
 - d. enforcing a code of conduct.

3. Volunteer service means
 - a. a willingness to obey the rules.
 - b. we must practice self-discipline.
 - c. satisfying the needs of the organization.
 - d. all of the above.

4. Proper wear of the CAP uniform is part of the ideal of
 - a. integrity.
 - b. volunteer service.
 - c. respect.
 - d. excellence.

5. Focusing on results and getting the job done right and on time is integral to the pursuit of
 - a. integrity.
 - b. excellence.
 - c. respect.
 - d. courage.

6. Viewing other members as having fundamental worth is an example of
 - a. respect.
 - b. courage.
 - c. recognition.
 - d. integrity.

7. Not rushing to judgment of other members' actions is a sign of
 - a. lack of decisiveness.
 - b. poor judgment.
 - c. inaction.
 - d. respect.

8. CAP core values support an atmosphere of
 - a. professional relations.
 - b. confidence in command.
 - c. consistency with the Air Force.
 - d. all of the above.

9. Core values require
 - a. a cultural commitment to decency.
 - b. no action because these values will catch on.
 - c. definition because they are abstract ideas.
 - d. authoritarian leadership to implement.

10. Core values require you to
 - a. be strict.
 - b. be judgmental.
 - c. use quick thinking.
 - d. strive to embody these principles.