Mission

Civil Air Patrol has a three-fold mission given to it by Congress. Each facet of CAP’s mission is designed to foster good citizenship through public service. CAP’s mission facets are:
1. Cadet Program: To motivate and provide the means for America’s youth to become dynamic Americans and aerospace leaders.
2. Emergency Services: To provide search and rescue, disaster relief services, homeland security, and civil defense preparedness.
3. Aerospace Education: To communicate knowledge, skills, and attitudes about aerospace activities the total impact of aviation and space exploration upon society. Aerospace education is directed toward the cadet and senior members of Civil Air Patrol, as well as to the general public using the nation’s education system as the primary vehicle to promote air and space supremacy.
